

LIFE LESSONS

from the first pages of your Bible

The Bible is God's _____ about God's _____ through God's _____, inspired by God's _____, that we might live as God's _____. The Old Testament tells us how the story _____. The Gospels tell us _____ the story is about. The Epistles tell us how to _____ within the story. Revelation tells us how the story _____.

Lessons for life from the first few pages of your Bible...

- You have a _____ (Gen 1:1)
- _____ is not an accident or a coincidence (1:26-27; 2:7; Job 25:6; Psa 8)
- My _____ is not like God's voice (Gen 1:3; Psa 29)
- God has always blessed us with the ability to make _____ and with choices come _____ (2:15-17)
- One fundamental choice I make day by day: who is telling me the _____? (3:1-5)
- _____ has been in the world for a very long time (3:1)
- The choice to _____ is always more serious than we realize (3:7-8; Jam 1:13-15)
- No matter how good we get at playing, no one _____ the blame game (3:12-13)
- Sin may have followed mankind out of the garden (4:6-7), but God didn't let mankind leave the garden without hearing a _____ (3:15)
- The promise (and the entire story) is about _____ (Eph 3:9-12; 1:7-10) and it's calling for a _____.